

DOGS on Paw-rade

THE CANINE EVENT OF THE YEAR IS ALMOST HERE!

SEPTEMBER 13th, 10–2 at the Baugh House (44th & Robb St.)

Brought to you by the Wheat Ridge Historical Society

A super-fun, super charged day devoted to our favorite pastime:

Indulging our BFF Canines!

Is your dog eager to please? Motivated by treats? Filled with boundless energy?
We've got games and contests to address ALL those behaviors!

The day starts with a Canine Costume Parade (last year's winner came as a kissing booth), followed by more contests than your dog can count, like:

- Musical Sit – when the music stops, last dog standing is “out”
- Leave-it Race – can your dog pass a plate of aromatic hot-dogs without stopping?
- Most Original Trick – we've seen some pretty talented pooches!
- Best Bark on Command – loud and full-bodied, but also short and sweet
- Most Congenial – everybody loves a lover!

Exhibit of charming dog art from iconic 1920's magazines on display

FREE to WRHS members; $10/dog for non-members. Register at wheatridgehistoricalsociety.org or onsite; inquiries wrhistorical@gmail.com or 303-421-9111. Bring current rabies shot record, fill out registration form, and sign a waiver. Dogs must be on leash at all times.

*formerly “Dogs on Display”